

Colour in the Margins: Colouring Sheet

BACK FROM THE BRINK

Pheasant's-eye (Adonis annua)

I am a member of the buttercup family. I grow on the bare, chalky soil amongst the crop plants and along the field edges. My flowers have deep red petals with a dark middle - some say I look like the eye of a pheasant. I have many other names such as Rose a ruby, Soldiers in green and Adonis's flower. You will find me in tales of Greek mythology.

Illustration: Wynona Legg

LOTTERY FUNDED